

Bible Study 1 – Jesus taken up – Acts 1:1-11

A woman's car stalled in traffic. She looked in vain under the hood to identify the cause, while the driver behind her leaned relentlessly on his horn. Finally she had enough. She walked back to his car and offered sweetly, "I don't know what the matter is with my car. But if you want to go look under the hood, I'll be glad to stay here and honk for you."

The context	After Jesus's three years of ministry, He was crucified, rose from death and ascended to heaven. Luke was a medical doctor who was a companion of the apostle Paul. He was a Gentile who wrote the gospel of Luke (the stories about Jesus), which was addressed to Theophilus who may have been a patron who supported Luke financially. The book of Acts (stories of the early church) was also written to Theophilus. It was a sequel to the book of Luke. They both describe Jesus appearing to the disciples after the resurrection and ascending to heaven.
